

ALLIES Playdates – All About India!

Sponsored by the GPES PTA

ALLIES Playdates are intended to be a fun-filled learning experience to introduce topics related to diversity and inclusion. These playdates will offer an opportunity to socialize with other families and gain understanding of what makes each family unique while doing something all families enjoy – having fun!

The Next ALLIES Playdate:

When: Sunday, November 12 @3pm

Where: GPES Playground

Topic: All About India!

Join us to learn about the different parts of India.
(Eastern, Western, Northern and Southern India).
We'll talk about the foods, traditional dress, native languages,
and more!

This is not a drop-off event.

To Register: <https://tinyurl.com/y8rs2cx2>.

Questions? Contact Ajay Gulati (202)359-9444 or email at yajagoo@yahoo.com

ALLIES stands for...

- Acknowledge – Respecting differences and accepting uniqueness of individuals.
- Learn – Consider diverse perspectives. Gain awareness.
- Listen – Give your attention and seek to understand. Openness and receptive others experiences.
- Include – Embrace others. Unite and collaborate. Share experiences.
- Engage – Speak up. Pledge support. Get involved. Connect with others.
- Support - Strengthen community. Serve as a foundation. Provide assistance and guidance.