

BLACK HISTORY ART SHOWCASE – FEATURING CULTURE QUEEN!

Does your child love to paint, draw, act, sing, dance, write poetry or short stories? If so, we have an awesome way to showcase their talent while celebrating black history.

Join the Garrett Park PTA for a Student Art Showcase!

Wednesday, February 28 @7pm

in the All Purpose Room with exciting programming featuring children’s entertainer, Culture Queen!

Come present your talent or just to watch the show. Either way you’ll have a great time!

Please let us know if you will join us – <https://tinyurl.com/yb4pre9d>

The Culture Queen

Black History Live with the Culture Queen

Special Performance for GPES Community

Hear ye, hear ye! Come one, come all!

Join the GPES PTA on a musical journey to Culture Kingdom. From boogieing down with African, calypso, jazz and hip hop beats to singing fun and uplifting lyrics and learning about local Black history, children and families are sure to have a royal time. This performance will combine movement and storytelling to complement its message of celebrating the rich diversity of our community.

About Culture Queen: With just a spoonful of magic and ancient wisdom, Jessica “Culture Queen” Smith helps children discover their own regalia and connect with their culture through self-affirming songs, rich storytelling, and body-positive dance. A master performing and teaching artist, Culture Queen travels near and far to inspire and entertain at venues like the Kennedy Center, National Children’s Museum, and the Smithsonian’s Anacostia Community Museum.

WHEN: Wednesday, February 28 @ 7pm
